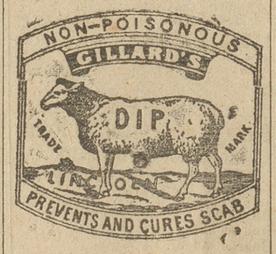
GILLARD'S
SHEEP DIP



This Dip is most carefully prepared by the latest improved methods and can be used with

Supplied to the Prince of Wales's Farm at SANDRINGHAM
TESTIMONIALS.
From Mr. JOHN J. MAHON, Capilla del Señor, June 29, 1881.—The dip which you sent me I used according to directions, and I can assure you that it gave the desired result. During four years of practical experience of curing scab in sheep, I have seen many specifics used, and I consider Gilliard's the only one that gives complete satisfaction. It improves the quality and promotes the growth of the wool. For efficiency, economy and facility of application, I prefer it to any dip I have used.
From MR. JAMES M. THOMAS, Estancia Santa Ines, Monte, June 29, 1881.—Having given a good trial to Gilliard's Dip, I have much pleasure in bearing my testimony to its valuable quality as a Sheep Dip. It destroys all insect life with which sheep are infected, mixes readily in cold water, does not injure the hands, and softens all hard parts. I shall strongly recommend it whenever an opportunity offers. As regards the cheapness, it should command a good sale.
From Mr. Wm. Petty, Estancia Caro, Colonia, Sept. 20, 1881—
"I feel great pleasure in informing you that the sheep dip supplied by you to me under the name of Gillard's Sheep Dip has had surprising results on my English long-woolled rams; it has kept them entirely free from scab after only twice using it, although those rams have been constantly running in a flock of scabby sheep. I intend for the first time to give it a trial with the whole of my English breed of sheep as soon as I have them shorn, as I feel satisfied I shall with that did keep scab out of the flock."
From Messrs. Patrick Mahon, junr., Ciriaco Morales, and James Murray, Capilla del Señor, Sept. 18, 1881—
"It gives us great pleasure to inform you that, after giving a good trial to Gillard's non-poisonous sheep dip, we can pronounce it to be the best specific we have used as yet, and we are fullly determined for the future to use no other remedy."

THE BOARD OF DISCORD.

The controversy between the Superintendent of Education and the Board of Education has ended in the eclipse of both. The contest was certainly an unequal one, and the last Parthian arrow was sped by Prof. Van Gelderen. Sarmiento has resigned and the Board is no more, and education is at present floating in troubled waters without helm or sail. Education is the foundation-stone of democracy, according to a favorite assertion that none have taken the trouble to deny and few to corroborate, but never before have we witnessed such a cat and dog fight as the recent quarrel in the newspapers. Sarmiento, in his usual way, bungled everything and attacked the Board on all sides in a vigorous and original style, whilst, with the exception of Van Gelderen, none of the Board could parry the onslaught. Private defects, retrospective errors and ridicule were raked up on both sides, and none would have ever supposed that the leaders of education could secrete so much bile. The Minister of Education, Dr Pizarro, looked on, whilst he might have put a stop to the quarrel from the beginning by suspending them all and proposing to Congress that the Board in future serve the country for the mere honor of doing so. Neither the Superintendent nor the members of the Board reaped any benefit from the family discord, but the public may rub its hands together and rejoice in the results, since it is more than probable that the salaries will be finally stopped and education shunted into a fresh groove. There was altogether too much talk and private animosity in the Consejo: the time was spent in spoiling each other's game, in putting back the pupils and friends of one man, and advancing the interests of others at their expense; jealousy was rife all over the line, and the only man who worked conscientiously, knew what he was about, and was modest because he knew much, was the director of the Buenos Aires Normal School.

There was too much talent at the surface and too great a vacuum beneath, real work there was none. Instead of concreting their sphere of action to the education of our youth, abstract principles were discussed, 'ologies' debated of which few knew anything, and private rancour crawled between the benches. Sarmiento knew too much, Guido Spano knew too little; the latter versified, whilst the former was an encyclopedia without leaves, and always go the better of the argument, because he had written a book, had known Horace Mann and knew the Sanskrit root of 'pater' at least he thought so. There could be no equilibrium under such circumstances, and the upshot was high-pressure, ebullition and explosion.

But this angry question of the Board of Education should direct the Minister's gaze to lower regions, where the 'descensus' is 'facilis,' but the labor of finding one's way is difficult. There is something intensely rotten in the State of Denmark, and the best recommendation of many pseudo-sophists is their mediocrity. By peering into the recesses of the educational labyrinth the Minister will find many cancers that demand the knife, before a general gangrene sets in; Sarmiento knew this and hinted at it, but personal interests, favouritism and soforth maimed his efforts just as much as those of others. We must look to another generation for reform, and the apostles of same are the young men educated in the Normal Colleges of the Republic, because at present it is perfectly useless to hope for one instant that the right men, the practical men, will be put in the right place at the head of the Educational Department. Everything at present is superficial and grasping, petty-minded and disorganized, anti-liberal and anti-clerical. There is no method, and education is at the mercy of specialists, who know only one thing and are like fish out of water in general, when a topic is broached outside their jurisdiction. We want both 'multum' and 'multa.' Minister Pizarro must look into these minor details as well as into the scandalous disclosures made by Sarmiento. The mere retirement of the Board and of the Superintendent will not satisfy the public.

TRIP TO THE RIO NEGRO

SAN BLAS.

There are two roads from Patagones to San Blas, one called the outside road which passes by the Salinas Inglesas and is the shortest, being but about 15 leagues, and the other closer to the sea coast, which passes through several estancias and is considered the safest, but which measures to the pass on the San Blas Sound 20 leagues; although doubly armed and apparently prepared to fight Numuncura himself, we took the inner and safer road. We started at day-break, and the road for the first 3 leagues runs through a 'chañar' wood which supplies the town with firewood; the camps are very undulating and the road sandy; here and there we met with points of hacienda, but for the first 5 leagues we saw no houses, all the poblaciones being down on the river. One of these estancias through which we now drove was put up for auction a couple of months ago by Nazar, the upset price being 85,000 m/c; there were no bidders, it was afterwards sold privately for 80,000 m/c, had we known then as much about the land as now, we should have made an effort to buy it; a league and a half of good camp with wood, water and fair pasturage for 80,000 m/c is a bargain. There is nothing particular to report about the camps through which we drove; in some places the grass was very high and in others scanty enough; the first puesto we pulled up at is distant from town about 7 leagues, and here Belloso with J Rae came up with the 'tropilla' having crossed over from the river to meet us. The owner of the puesto invited us in; we found his wife and 2 children; the whole conversation whilst taking maté was about the Indians; the woman had a most frightened appearance and looked as if she had been carried off by the Indians and re-captured; the children sat on stools and never spoke a word. Giving our seat in the coach to J Rae, we took his horse and joined Belloso in driving the 'tropilla.' Of all the modes of travelling in the Plate, riding with a 'tropilla' is the pleasantest and best, it beats even railway travelling; the horses bowl along so freely at the jingle of the mare's bell that you need neither spur or 'rebenque.' The day was delightful and the breeze from the sea, as we passed in front of Punta Rosa, most invigorating; the gallop was magnificent and brought back to us days long past, when we thought nothing of riding from Zarate to Ranchos with a 'tropilla' in a single day; we rode 12 leagues up to Messrs Buckland's estancia, which is within 3 leagues of San Blas. All the estancia houses or puestos we passed on the road were of the poorest description, and the Messrs Buckland's was the only place where we saw a cooking stove. As it was advanced in the afternoon and by no means certain what kind of accommodation we should find at the estancia; we stopped for the night at the Bucklands', who after 11 years hard life on the Rio Negro have at last succeeded out here; we saw their flock at the house fat and in splendid condition, the same of their rodeo of cows, and their flock at the puesto is equally good; they like the camps hereabout very much, but at seasons suffer from drought, still in the greatest of droughts the camps are never so bare as the inside camps of Giles and Areco in dry seasons. At daybreak we started, as we passed the line of the Buckland land we entered the Rincon de Belloso, the best land we have seen since we left Buenos Aires, rich black earth, fresh sweet water, and fine soft grasses covered with dry 'carretilla' and wild peas; this splendid land attracted Kincaid's notice as he had no idea that there were such camps hereabouts; the Rincon has a front of 1½ league on the sea and runs back to an arroyo, being 2¼ leagues in depth; at the end of the land is a large wood with fine timbers for firewood and corral posts; this land is divided from San Blas by the Sound, and as it was for sale, and offered cheap, and adjoining our own land, we bought it, thereby making the estancia of San Blas more than double its former size. At 9 o'clock we reached the pass in the Sound, and as the tide was out we easily crossed, the 'capataz' from the estancia having come down to meet us with a 'tropilla' of fresh horses. This pass is the only entrance into the estancia, and Mr Atkins very properly put up a 'puesto' here, where the 'peones' from the estancia take week about in residing to keep guard on the cattle and mares. About a mile from the pass is the cattle 'rodeo', and hard by is a 'laguna' of fresh water, the best on all the coast. The cattle were gathered up that morning on the 'rodeo', and we had a good look at them; they are in splendid condition, with about 200 novillos from 4 to 5 years old, ready for sale; the 'rodeo' numbers 1140, and the cows are still calving; the season there being later than in Buenos Ayres. It is two long leagues from the 'rodeo' to the estancia house; we rode over the land, delighted with the appearance of the place, and the majestic position of the property, the high hills kept the view of the sea from us, and until we reached the estancia house we did not come near the coast. In some parts the camps looked bare enough, but even in the barest spots the land was covered with dry 'carretilla' seed; as we were obliged to take the shortest road to the house Mr Andrews informed us, that the best part of the land we did not see, as there is an immense valley in amongst the hills, called the 'Canada de la Ballena', which is over 1½ long and ½ a league wide, which is the same rich description of land as the Rincon Bellosa. It was 11 o'clock a.m. when we reached the estancia; here we found our friends, who had arrived up in the coach, all busy with the usual preparations for 'carne con cuero'. Mr Buckland, Capt. Hansen, and Mr Andrews, a London barrister, on a visit to Mr Buckland, came up with us to the estancia, so our party was increased; the new estancia house is finished, with the exception of corridores and boarded floors, which will be completed in a few days, but the grand 'galpon,' 24 yards long, with brick walls and zinc roof, is in capital repair and susceptible of being made a fine roomy house. Breakfast over, we started with Kincaid for a stroll to the sea, about 5 squares off; we had to climb to the summit of the high hills before we got to the beach, but when we surveyed the bay from the height, saw the land-locked harbor, and the billows breaking outside madly on Point Rubio, whilst the waters in the bay were as placid as a 'laguna,' it brought back to us Dalkey Island and its beloved surroundings.

LONDON LETTER.

(From our Own Correspondent)

November 25th.

Certain indications of revived trade with the River Plate I have already referred to as given in the last monthly Board of Trade returns. We have now the gratifying fact that during this single month of November no less than fifteen steamers have left our English ports for the River Plate. They form a catalogue more interesting than Homer's, and they shall be chronicled:—

From London there have sailed the Ocean King, the Derwent, the Horrox and the Hipparchus.

From Southampton, the Mondego.

From Liverpool, the Britannia, Sirius, Thales, Buenos Aireans, Cordillera, Cynthia, Herschel, Vandyck, Pliny and Iberia.

You know how much tonnage that represents of goods dry and wet, soft and hard; and you know how many other steam vessels from other parts of the world are almost daily arriving in the River Plate with cargoes of merchandise of all descriptions; and, no douht, you know where it all goes to. I dont. But I remember the dirty little 'pulperia' where, in the days of Rosas, we youngsters warmed ourselves of a winter's evening when we were sent to the 'bajo' or 'Dapitania' for the letters, and had to wait till the skipper of some English barque came ashore, bringing the latest intelligence from Europe—intelligence of events fifty or sixty days old. I can remember too the first mail steamer, the Esk, which astonished the natives and herself by arriving at the hour announced. She never did it again, and was soon followed by a series of gradually improved conveyances. And so you have gone on with 'Royal Mails,' Pacific lines, Southampton lines and French and Italian lines; or any other ingredient beyond Milk and Sugar. DELICIOUS FLAVOUR. Directions as simple as A B C. TRY IT.

of steamers and submarine telegraphs, until you have in thirty years risen from 'red waistcoats' and barbarism to a tolerably fair state of material civilisation. But your 'hechos locales' are very much as they were. What all your kind of places want, whether it be in South America or North America in Honolulu or Melbourne, is an indigenous culture. A money-getting society, with a weekly relaxation at church, is unendurable.

The commercial reports from the British Consuls in China are repeating an oft-told tale very discreditable to our manufacturers. Mr. Oxenham reports that in the trade of Chin-Niang there was in 1880 a decrease of imports in every description of English piece-goods. Much disgust, says Mr. Consul Darker, is expressed at the excessive sizing of English manufactures, reaching 30 per cent. of the total weight in ordinary cases and 40 per cent. in the case of drills. American drills are said to be quite free from adulteration. All that we have heard before, but the Manchester men, like the Bradford people in their woolens, will go on in the old way. It is sheer mulishness, because it is not only the sizing which makes the stuff useless for the wear of the hard-working Chinese labourer, but it is for the want of a little more taste even in the higher class of English goods that foreigners are driving them out of China itself, where the native ladies and the richer classes prefer the French goods. As a nation we cannot hope to rival the French in taste, but we have French workmen in Manchester, and in everything round us the rapid improvement of the English taste itself is marvellous, although in this respect I speak, perhaps too exclusively, of London. Again, it is not only French, American or German competition that the Manchester people have now to fear either in China or India. In both these countries the natives themselves are establishing cotton factories. They have the material at hand, and should electricity, which is most probable, become a motive power, economising fuel and metal in a more delicate machinery, they will run us hard even in cheapness and quantity. For the rest, they know exactly the wants of their people, and in colour and design not even the Frenchman can excel the Hindoo at least. This new kind of competition dawning on the world is a serious question for all manufacturing countries. Englishmen, in particular, who have been so long accustomed to turn out, by mere machine force, huge quantities of cheap stuff with which they have clothed the half-civilised world, can with difficulty understand that the rest of the world is advancing and that the newly civilised have found that they too cannot live on bread alone, or on the Manchester goods. It is not a question of free trade or fair trade, but it is of foul trade and adulteration, and ultimately of introducing more intellectuality and more of the scientific as well as artistic element into our manufacturing classes. The modern Vulcanic age, the race of mere mechanics, is passing away.

For a long time to come Great Britain will more than maintain her own in power of mechanical production. That power is not only a question of coal, iron and machinery, but of the acknowledged superiority of the English artisan, who will do more work than any two Germans or Frenchmen. This was quite lately admitted by an Alsatian gentleman who was sent expressly by the French Government to inspect the manufactories of Manchester.

I see, in reference to Mr. Egerton's report, some allusion to steel rails of bad quality, supplied by Creuzot. I understand from practical men, but cannot vouch for the truth of their statement, that the great French foundry is inconvenienced by the badness of the coal it has to employ; and, moreover, that the best French iron ores go to England, that a great deal of the native French ore is getting worked out, that the foundry is obliged to send far into the interior for ore of better quality, and that the freight is so heavy they must either make an inferior article, or they cannot compete in price with England.

Krupp, at Essen, protected by the barbarous tariff of the German Government, can charge the poor Germans £9 10s. a ton for steel rails, and from the profit he makes out of his despoiled countrymen he can afford to undersell the English for a short time and in one or two contracts: but that cannot last. It was rumoured that Krupp was about to turn his business into a limited company. That rumour has been denied, but it is by no means an improbable fact.

Sr. A. G. B. de Verragrande has just arrived in London from Montevideo. His mission is to raise money to establish the 'Banco de Credito Real Mixto.'

The lightship on point Indio is again far away from its proper anchorage, and therefore a serious snare for mariners.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The Royal Mail steamer Mondego sails this afternoon for England. The mail bags close at 1 p.m.

To-morrow—Twelfth Day—will be a strict holiday. The most prominent thing in the way of amusement will be the races at the Hippodrome, Palermo, to be continued and concluded on Sunday next. There are six races on the card for to-morrow—all famous horses and promising capital sport. Trains will start from the Central Station at 6.50; 8.10; 9.35; 11; 1.10; 2.05 and 3.18, so Mr. Tout le Monde, who has announced his intention of going, can suit himself as to hours.

There will be a grand clearance sale next Tuesday of the many surplus articles left over from the American Bazaar. There will be stunning bargains going, as the Committee have resolved to give away, if neccessary, half the stock for half nothing, and the other half for next to nothing. At the first figure we calculate that they will have numerous purchasers. We understand that the articles are of the most varied and useful description.

We wish to remind our fair readers of the intended Ladies' Work Department in the approaching Continental Exhibition. It is time to begin preparations, as there are now only 40 days left before the opening day. Space has been secured for work by English Ladies, and all kinds of fancy and artistic work will be accepted. The exhibitors can sell the work in the Exhibition if they wish, on payment of 5 per cent. commission to the Exhibition Fund and another 5 per cent. to the stall-keepers. Intending exhibitors can obtain further information at our office.

The Nacion published yesterday a very interesting letter from Rosario in which it is stated that not a single fanega of the new wheat has yet been sold in the colonies, and this state of things is attributed to the scalding grain speculators (like those in wool) got last year through their reckless purchases.

We learn with the utmost pleasure that our friend Captain Miller, formerly commander of the Tycho Brahe, of Lamport and Holt's line, has, after a hard competitive examination with 70 others, obtained the command of fine School Ship Conway, in the Mersey. It is a splendid school for boys and is full of the sons of the gentry of all parts of the United Kingdom. There is no compulsion on the boys to adopt a sea life when they finish their course: they have full liberty to adopt any profession they please, but the education, discipline and training they receive is first-class and gives them an advantage in the race of life, no matter for what stakes they enter when leaving the school. Foreigners of good character and good standing are admitted, and our young Argentine friends, amongst whom we are happy to notice a growing taste for rowing, cricket and other manly English sports, might do worse than induce their fathers to give them a year or two on board the Conway. We have prospectuse at the disposal of all interested. The terms are only 50 guineas per annum.

A clash between the two National Chambers is expected on the head of the Budget. It is said the Deputies will not accept the reductions made by the Upper Chamber. If so there is no chance of Congress closing to-morrow, as anticipated.

The police have received very stringent orders this year in reference to the masquerade balls. At the first incipient sign of a row, everybody connected with it will be then and there arrested and incarcerated. Nothing short of this will answer to preserve even a semblance of order in these orgies.

The residents in Plaza Libertad have offered to subscribe to have the gas fittings put up for the Alsina Statue 'fiesta' left there permanently. A good idea. They ought also subscribe for a thick veil for the statue. Moses!

Mr Bowring leaves this morning on his return to Salto, B. O. He called on us yesterday to say that we misunderstood him in saying that the Salto and Santa Rosa Railway has gone to the dogs. The line is working, but its extension to Santa Rosa had to be stopped, owing to the Government not paying the money it promised for the work.

Telegrams from Tucuman report a riot amongst the navvies engaged on the extension of the railway. Several were wounded. The ruction is attributed to the overseers; not the men, and stern measures have been adopted to prevent a repetition of it.

The Hotel Frascati has been purchased by Mr Pascal, proprietor of the Hotel Argentino.

Explorations for stone suitable for paving are now going on at Port Desire, and if they prove successful the National Government will establish a penal settlement there and employ the convicts in making paving stones.

The Committee of the Escuela de Musica have resigned 'en masse.' It appears that Congress has such a wretched ear for music that it wont vote a copper to keep up the school, which is now within measurable distance of a final collapse. It made a deal of noise in its day this famous school.

His Majesty the Emperor of Brazil, President Roca and President Vidal had a triangular exchange of compliments and good wishes on New Year's Day, by telegram.

An article on 'Conffins' may not be very lively reading, but we read one on this grave subject in yesterday's Diario which hits the nail on the head and we hope will put one in the coffin of the outrageous extravagance displayed in funeral matters in this country. Our colleague says:— "It is disgraceful, Foreigners, especially the English, start at the aspect of our funeral establishments..... What is the meaning of all the luxury and ostentation displayed in them? Do the proprietors imagine that the first passer by may step into their brilliantly lighted stores and buy a coffin to take home with him and have it ready for his dying day? It only requires an order from the Municipality to have coffins put out of public sight. In England and the United States it is strictly prohibited to expose coffins for sale: they are hidden from view. Such a sight destroys the purest fibres of sentiment. We carry our extravagant luxury into every trade, but let us forego luxury in death. We should imitate moral and cultured nations, and not because we have one day to die, force death on the public gaze at every step. The Municipality should take this matter up seriously, for the improvement of our vitiated habits and customs which are too often lauded to the skies by those who think they know every thing but in reality know nothing whatever." What our esteemed colleague says is perfectly true. It requires a long residence here, for Englishmen at least, to overcome the involuntary shudder of disgust and outraged sensibility which the coffin establishments of this city excite in the passer by.

Messrs. Jacobsen and Co. kindly favoured us yesterday with a copy of the Christmas number of the Illustrated London News. It is the grandest ever seen here. The large picture 'Little Mischief'—a beautiful little blue-eyed boyden playing a drum—is worth ten times the price of the whole number, which is filled with the most beautifully executed cuts. This enterprising firm has also just received the first issue of 'Irish Pleasantry and Fun, a work that promises to be very entertaining, and for which Messr J are booking subscribers. They have likewise received 'Parnell's Life' and Mrs M. G. Mulhall's 'Between the Amazon and the Andes,' price 125 $ m|c.

The famous war steamer Rosetti is still going, going, but not gone yet on her voyage to the South. Saturday is now the day fixed for her departure. The Rosetti is what is called by sailors an "unlucky ship." Since the day on which the National Government was unfortunate enough in to purchase here, she has been half the time dock for repairs or aground or damaged or going two miles backward for one forward, and her final fresk will probably be to make a dive bottomwards when least expected. She is a wonderful ship, one of her peculiarities being that she never either starts or arrives in time.

The telegraph announces another fearful suicide at Montevideo yesterday by a baker named Cazzano, who cut his throat in a horrible manner, and in addition drove a dagger to the hilt into his stomach and left it there!

The National Senate sat till two o'clock yesterday morning, using the pruning-knife on the budget right and left. Finding that, in spite of this, the estimated expenditure was still far above the probable revenue, the house passed 'nem con' Dr. del Valle's motion to reduce all salaries, subventions, in fact all the proposed expenses, by 10 per cent. It is doubtful if even this will meet the requirements of the case.

General Sarmiento has resigned his post as Superintendent of Education, but the general impression is that the Government will not accept it. It would be hard to secure so good a man for the post as the veteran President.

The approval of the Hypothecary Bank Rill by the Provincial Senate made Cedula holders joyous yesterday. The question of the province guaranteeing this stock is now settled for ever, and it will soon be quoted in the London market.

They had a very stiff gale at Montevideo on Tuesday night, but no damage was done.

The news from Montevideo is that there is another Richmond in the field—Sr. Tajas—as a candidate for the Presidency, in opposition to Santos.

There is a worse wail of woe in parts of the camp at the high price of meat than even in town. In Lincoln $28 m|c. per arrobe is the price.

In gold a small business was done to-day for end of February at 25.15; some 10,000 pats were done at this rate. There are plenty of sellers at this rate, but the operation is so small that it does not reflect the market.

In Cedulas more business was done than usual. Last night the Provincial Senate passed the Mortgage Bank Bill, and the only thing wanting is the decree of the Executive carrying out the law. In Cedulas Series E some few were sold at 86 firm. In Series A business was pretty brisk and firm at par. We remark a sale for end of April at 100. Series A will henceforwaed maintain the par quotation in spite of the rumored further emission in the Series in which we do not believe.

There are always plenty of sellers in the market. Series E is firm at 86, and the business done in the scrip is magnificent.

In National Bank Shares there was a species of lull and the operations were small. The market is yet under yesterday's impression, and holders hold back prudently, although prices stiffened somewhat. The advertisement of the Bank, with reference to the election of new Directors, will be found in another column. The feeling in the share market is one of passive looking-on, as the large holders turn the balance at a moment's notice; at present rates are rising, and recovered from yesterday's fall; prices for cash rose to 124½, but the sales were not large; rates for end of the month opened at 123¾, went up steadily to 124, and finally closed at 125. Some 2,000 shares were sold at the latter rates. Small holders show much reserve in their operations, as the bulls to-day were bears yesterday and vice-versa.

The sales at the ring were—

Mr Ponsati was welcomed on 'Change on his return from the Santa Fe colonies. He states that the yield of the crop to the 'chacareros' this year has been poor, but that the harvest will be a very large one, owing to the great plantations of last year. The quantity will beat that of former years, but the quality is not as good. The prosperity in the colonies is something astonishing, and men who were poor several years ago, buy to-day from 20 to 30 concessions to work on. The Province of Sta. Fe was never so active, and at the rate the wheat fields are extending the whole place will be under cereals in a few years.

Commodore Ferguson, commander of the Herschel, was welcomed on 'Change to-day and enveloped in friends; he had a fine trip out. He does not go to Rosario this time.

Telegrams from Europe state that the yields of the new wools are satisfactory, and due to this favorable intelligence we have remarked of late an improvement in the prices of from $3 to 5 m|c per ar. Business in wools has been and continues to be very brisk, and the barracas that were so full are now completely empty, having moved off the stock easily at advantageous prices. In the Once Station new wools have been all sold, and exporters are galloping over the camp, since there is no wool in the Plaza to meet their contracts. The principal purchases are for Roubaix and Tourcoing; a good deal has also been bought for Antwerp. Arrivals in the Once meanwhile have greatly fallen off, and it is calculated that already 90,000 bales have been exported. In the Once good wools fetch from $90 to 98 par ar. for qualities from the West; in the south prices are firmer, and some exceptional lots have fetched 105 m|c. The orders of purchase from Europe are very considerable, and more activity would be witnessed in the barracas if more wools arrived. The wools of the season have been so favorably received in Europe that we think prices will be well sustained.

In exchange there is a very heavy business going on, some of the houses having drawn as much as 2 and 3 millions of francs, we never remember a busier exchange time; exchange brokers are flying about all day long in their coaches; the rates to-day are:—

On London 60½-⅝

Paris 5.30-31

Italy 5.31

Antwerp 5,31-32

Rio nominal

Montevideo ¼ prem.

The banks are the principal takers.

Nat. Bank shares to entitle the holders to vote must be deposited in the Bank on Monday, and will remain locked up till 31st, as the meeting comes off on 30th: should for any cause the meeting be postponed, there will be a difficulty about the delivery of shares on 31st, which makes people on their guard about selling for that date, as even if they hold the shares they may be unable to deliver them; the stock rules firm and in demand, as the bulk of the Nat. Bank shares, are deposited in the banks and hypothecated to secure advances, it remains to be seen whether these shares will be delivered for voting purposes to the bank or not; we believe that a very large amount of the stock will remain outside and not be deposited in time for registry. Mr E. de las Carreras is spoken of in connection with others as candidate for the new directory.

Merchants' letter in to-day's Standard about the Riachuelo and our shipping trade was greatly spoken of on Change, and highly approved of, Merchant's views are sound to the point, and we hope President Roca will read the letter.

We made a slight mistake in the name of the new lithographers who have taken Standard Court. The new firm is Messrs Stiller and Lasse, and the establishment will be the largest and best of the kind in this city, mounted with all the very latest and best machinery and with stones of every size; we have no doubt the new concern will do an immense business.

Some time ago it was said that 10,000 Lincoln sheep in the Falklands were offering on sale here and to be delivered at Bahia Blanca at a reasonable price; as there are buyers for these sheep, should this meet the eyes of interested parties, we request them to forward particulars to our office.

Saladeristas insist that even at present prices, 32c for novillos, the saladero business gives no profit, as the cattle are not in fat condition.

Telegrams from Europe announce the failure of a house in Bordeaux; as there are two houses of almost the same name there, when the news first reached it caused much anxiety, but subsequent telegrams gave that the house that failed is a small concern in sheepskins and with very small relations with this or any other market. The failure of a wool firm in Havre is also announced, and owing to the gigantic speculation which has been going on for some time back in Paris, people are nervous about the general financial state of the French market.

Messrs Schwartz & Co, the renowned founders, have presented bids th the Municipality of Selgrano offering to supply that 'Municipio' with water, 40 litres per head, at the small estimate of one million one hundred thousand dollars m|c. The same firm also bids to supply Flores for 1½ million, 40 litres per head. This is indeed great news for those suburbs; whatever Messrs Schwartz & Co undertake they carry out well, and water is the chief want in both of these suburbs.

The Italian barque Cuore has been chartered to load bales for Antwerp at 15s.

The large sales of wool in Montevideo are attracting much notice. The activity in the export market is beginning down there.

Little done in exchange: rates 50½d, 5.30 on France; 5.31 on Antwerp.

At afterhours there were sellers Serie E in the market, asking 86¼. In National Bank Shares a little was done at firmer prices, the market hardened and rates closed at 125 for cash, and 125½ for end of the month.

Mr Juan Mohr, of the Banda Oriental, was welcomed on Change to-day.

The Kepler has engaged 2,300 bales at 35/ and 10 o|o.

It appears that only four saladeros are at present working in this province, viz, those Rocca, Podesta, Luro, and Repetto; there remain four, that will begin the faena soon.

At Bullrich's auction of Lincoln lands to-day, there were no bidders. These lands fetched in Dec. 1880, $51 per hectare equal to about $150,000 per league. Nevertheless the 7000 hectares put up for auction by Bullrich at an upset price of $135 000 per league, when the lands are in reality worth $200, 000, m|c attracted no buyers, and we attribute the fact to the general lull in business everywhere. Furthermore this is a most unfavorable period for auctions, as all the high life is spending the new year on the estancias. The agrimensor of the lands put up for sale state that there are no better in those districts.

The abolition of the double stamp nuisance was much approved of on the Bolsa to-day; and President Roca and Governor Rocha were applauded for the speedy settlement of the question.

President Roca, and Minister Romero, and Governor Rocha had an interview yesterday at the Casa Rosada on the double stamp question. It was decided that the National stamp only should be required, as the city of B. Aires is Federal territory.

The advices from Tucuman announce a strike of navvies on the second division of the extension. Several men were wounded; no doubt the 'capataces', to whom the whole blame of the affair is attributed.

The Bahia Blanca branch of the Provincial Bank has not yet been established, and we think that the sooner the branch is created there the better; a Bank will do Bahia Blanca much good and facilitate the transactions in stock and produce.

The Provincial Government has handed over 400,000 pats for the Riachuelo works. The measure is an opportune one, as the embankments are in a deplorable condition.

Several of the Interior Provinces have already begun to send exhibits to the Continental Exhibition; San Juan and Tucuman have already begun in earnest and the exhibits are deposited in Rosario. Meantime the Province of Buenos Aires is just beginning to wake from its lethargy; an Exhibition Committee has been organised, composed of very good men, but who can do little without funds for the purpose. The B. Aires Government must advance at least one million of dollars for freights and to defray expenses of those whose exhibits are expensive. The Campana, Northern, Southern, and Ensenada Railways should do as the Western and reduce their freight on exhibits 50 o|o; the Provincial Committee has sent in the request to these companies, and affirmative answers are very naturally anticipated.

Cordoba is preparing to make a great Show at the Exhibition, and Governor Juarez Celman's Government has advanced 3,000 pats for the purpose. Three thousand dollars will certainly not go far, and the means are too meagre to achieve great ends. The Cordoba Government could have given 30,000 pats, the price of ten leagues of fiscal lands. Nevertheless, we may say, that, if all the other provinces follow the example of Cordoba, the country may be congratulated on the fact. But what can we expect from the virgin wealth of Jujuy, with all its minerals, kerosene, petroleum?—nothing if the National Government does not lend the provinces a helping hand. Catamarca is in the same situation, and many others.

We extract the following from The Spectator of Dec. 3rd:—

"The Times' correspondent declares that all France has given itself up to speculation, as in the days of John Law. The peasantry, with their vast aggregate savings, are buying risky shares on the Bourse, till "the Rue Quincampoix (where the Boursiers of the Regency used to gamble) now extends from one end of France to the other." Men buy and sell shares the very meaning of which they do not know, a broker, for example, doing a heavy transaction in "Les Alpines," which he at first thought was a railway, then fancied was a mine, and finally discovered to be a "reorganised" ironfoundry. Prices have gone up till "good" shares yield only three per cent., and speculations have been floated till the aggregate shares on the market, apart from Rentes and public loans of all sorts, reach a thousand million pounds. Including the Debt and the city loans, the bonds dealt in are estimated at two thousand million pounds English. The writer is evidently frightened by his figures, but the danger does not lie in the totals, France is richer than England, and the total nominally dealt in on the Stock Exchange is supposed to reach three thousand millions, but the ground of alarm in France is the prepesterous belief in financing schemes which never can yield solid returns. They are sustained in various ways, the soundest one being the real demand for capital in central and eastern Europe at high rates of interest; but the crash must come, and any serious political occurrence would precipitate it. When it arrives, there will be a bad quarter of an hour on all Exchanges, and anybody who is out of speculation may congratulate himself. An angry word spoken by M. Gambetta, or Prince Bismarck, or even Count Kalnoky, the new Austrian Chancellor, might be followed by a "Black Friday" all over Europe.

Mr Guillermo Printzenskold, shipbroker of Rosario, in his excellent report for the month, give the following exports since 1st Dec. to 31st December:—

Procederemos a vender por orden y cuenta de su dueno, bajo la infima base fijada, una fraccion de campo situada en el partido de Juarez, conocido por Fortin de Las Saladas, campo que servio hace infinitos anos de invernada a las caballadas del General Rivas y que este elijio como campo superior y porque los indios lo usaban anteriormente para uso objeto para invierne de las haciendas. Estos datos los queremos hacer saber al publico para que tenga noticia exacta sobre la bondad de los ricos y abundantes pastos de este campo.

La laguna llamada Las Saladas de agua potable y de 4 cuadras por 6, posee vertientes de primer orden y no se ha visto nunca seca, y ademas de esta en el limite del campo La Totora existe otra laguna de importancia.

BASE DE VENTA

78—— ALSINA ——78
El Jueves 19 de Enero
A las 3 p.m.

Remataremos a la mas alta postura y dinero de contado pasando la base arriba indicada por orden terminante de sus propietarios y por liquidacion de sociedad estos magnificos campos situados en el Partido de Bahia Blanca, y que podemos reputar sin exajeracion alguna los mejores, en cuanto a pastos y aguadas permanentes de aquella localidad; campos poblados hace area de 21 años.

Los Manantiales—(Plano A)

LOTE No. 1—Una suerte de estancia o sean ½ legua con frente al Naposta Grande arroyo de agua cristalina, permanente y dulce; linda por el N. Este con D. Sisto Laspiur, por el Sud, Oeste y Nor Oeste con Jorge Claraz; tiene una poblacion construida de piedra y barro con techo de fierro de 4 reales por vara cocina con techo de paja y un corral de piedra para ovejas, grande y bien situado.

LOTE No. 2—Se compone de 4½ leguas mas o menos sobre el Naposta y linda por el N. O. con los Sres C Heusser Arce y Chautini; por el N. Este con el lote num. 3, y por el S. Oeste con Cuquet, Bajo Hondo y el Estafo. Tiene en el Centro del campo, la Laguna de Manantiales y el arroyito del mismo nombre: las poblaciones son: sobre el Naposta grande uno de dos piezas de material y un pequeño galpon de lo mismo; otro de dos piezas, uno de adobe crudo y la otra de piedra con un gran corral de piedra para ovejas.

La poblacion de los Manantiales se compone de tres grandes piezas de material de adobe crudo con techo de tabla y fierro; a mas dos puestos construidos con los mismos materiales que estos ultimos.

LOTE No. 3°—Lindero con el anterior y se compone de 3 leguas aproximadamente con frente tambien al Naposta y fondo hasta el Bajo Hondo; tiene tambien una laguna 'Los Salados', una poblacion sobre el arroyo de una pieza de piedra como las anteriores y dos poblaciones de adobe crudo con techo de fierro

El total de estos campos, conocidos por los Manantiales dista dos leguas y diez cuadras desde el Esquinero Oeste a la plaza del pueblo de Bahia Blanca y su superficie total segun la reciente mensura practicada por el agrimensor D. Federico Gomez Molina, se compone de 8 leguas cuad. mas 538 cua. cs.

La calidad de la tierra es en todas partes vegetal, arenosa, hasta una profundidad que varia entre media y tres cuartas vs. pero se nota de una manera bien clara la fecundidad de ella, en los parages donde ha sido removida ha brotado subitamente y en abundancia el trevol de carretilla y el alfilerillo, ambos pastos tiernos y dulces.

Aguadas—Tiene el Naposta Grande, las Lagunas, Los Manantiales y Saladas y el arroyito Los Manantiales.

Ademas, se encuentra el agua a diversa profundidad en este campo a consecuencia de los accidentes del terreno y que varia desde 1 hasta 13 metros de profundidad.

Pastos—Los pastos son mezclados, encontrandose el alfilerillo, trevol de carretilla, cola de zorro, pasto duro, flechilla, vinagrillo, té pampa, cebadilla y macadien, predominando en un 80 c/o el trevol, alfilerillo, pasto duro y cola de zorro.

Este campo es apropiado para hacienda lanar y vacuna, indistintamente, la cual se encuentra en tal estado de gordura que se necesita trabajo encontrar animales que sirvan para el consumo.

Nueva Roma—(Plano B)

Se compone esta fraccion de tres y tres cuartas leguas cuadradas sobre el arroyo Sauce Chico y sus linderos son por el N E Juan y Eduardo Vidal y Francisco Coico, por el S E. Francisco D Bozzaur, por el N O los mismos Juan y S Vidal y por el S.O. el Sauce Chico, dista este campo del Esquinero Este 4½ leguas de la plaza principal del pueblo Bahia Blanca.

PASTOS—Estos son en general cola de zoro pastos duro y carretilla, existiendo unicamente en sus bajos y muy principalmente en los comprendidos por el arroyo Sauce Chico y Saladillo, Lazaga y Garcia, con gran abundancia el trevol de olor, alfilerillo, mostaza y te pampa. Este terreno es apropiado por su mayor estension a la cria del ganado vacuno.

Calidad de la tierra: es semejante a la de los Manantiales y se nota tambien claramente la fecundidad de ella.

AGUADAS—Tiene el Sauce Chico arroyito permanente de agua dulce y cristalina, tiene ademas dos Saladillos o arroyitos.

Los verticales, debido a lo accidentado del terreno, se encuentran desde los 40 centimetros hasta los 11 metros de profundidad.

La venta de esta fraccion se hara de la manera siguiente—

Lote No. 4—Compuesto de una y media legua cuadrada.

Lote No. 5—Una suerte de estancia o sean tres cuartos leguas con opcion a los Lotes No. 6, y 7, cada lote de ½ leguas.

Cresmos de nuestro deber llamar la atencion de los estancieros sobre estos magnificos campos que como ve por los informes del agrimensor son de primera calidad.

Su situacion no puede ser mejor, distan apenas 2½ leguas del Puerto de Bahia Blanca, destinado a ser el mas importante en toda la costa Sud, de donde podran embarcarse directamente todos nuestros productos de la vasta campana Sud de lo Provincia.

El flete dado alli al riachuelo vale unicamente $3 por arb. de lana y enfardilada la mitad.

Ademas es publico y notorio, la prolongacion del ferro carril del Sud desde el Azul a este punto, asi que puede decirse con seguridad, que estos campos en pocos anos valdran de $600 a 800,000 la legua.

Por planos e informes impresos, ocurran a nuestra casa Alsida 78, desde el 20 del corr, en adelante.

Comision de la Provincia de Bu

STATE OF IRELAND.

Dublin Dec. 6th.

The combination of agriculture and handicraft appears to be a very general thing in the county Donegal. Out of the fourteen cases heard in the county within the last eight or nine days, there have been cases of men who appear to live chiefly by their handicraft, one having been a shoemaker residing in Scotland for the last twelve years. Another, whose case was heard yesterday in Donegal town, was a carpenter, while to-day the only case heard in Donegal, the Commissioners having spent half the day in inspecting farms, was the case of another carpenter-farmer, James Spence, who got the farm, 72 acres, from his grandfather, at a rent of over 33l.—the Poor Law valuation being over 27l. It was stated that in 1842 the rent of the holding, which was then larger than it is now, was 7l., and it was admitted that the rent in 1852, after the Earl of Arran had become owner, was fixed at 11l. From that time to 1869 it was increased to 14l., 17l., 20l., 28l. 16s., 31l. 5s. 1d., and lastly to the present rent, 33l. 14s. 2d. The tenant admitted that about the year 1848 drains had been made at Lord Arran's expense, but they soon became choked, they having been filled with only two-and-a-half or three inches of broken stones. The difference of opinion as to the cost of reclaiming bog was made obvious by the tenant's witnesses putting it at 14l. an acre, in which however he included the preparation for and the putting in a crop, 16l. being his estimate for the bare reclamation, while the landlord's witness put it at 7l. an acre. The tenant witnesses put a fair rent at 14l., and the landlord's witnesses at 29l., the latter swearing that he left five years' margin for the tenantright, while the other swore that they did not allow the tenant anything for his tenant-right. The Court reserved judgment.

A terrific storm is passing over the northwest coast of Ireland to-night, equalling in violence that of last Monday fortnight, when great damage was done by the sea overflowing its embankments in Donegal Bay and elsewhere along the coast.

A meeting of the Ladies' Land League was held to-day at their rooms, Upper Sackville-street, Miss Wallworth presiding. Mrs Molony, the treasurer, announced that during the past week 224l. 12s. 8d. had been received for the general League. Of this sum 70l. came from the Stockton-on-Tees Branch, 32l. was the result of a lecture, and the remainder was sent in sums varying in amount from 12l. to 5s., subscribed by Children's League branches. They received during the week for the prisoners' fund 937l. 9s. 5d. This included 600l. sent through the Freeman's Journal. Cork had subscribed 100l., and various branches had sent from 20l. to 12l. each. The amount spent during the week on evicted families was 187l. 13s. 2d.; on the political prisoners' families 197l.; and on the imprisoned suspects up to that day they spent on prison diet (including outstanding debts), 539l. 8s. 3d. Since last meeting the secretary reported 50 arrests—16 under the Coercion Act, 34 under the ordinary law—and 46 evictions. Thirteen new branches had been formed. A list of the evictions was then read, giving the names of the landlords and the sums due by the tenants. It was stated that since the 4th of October 6000l. had been received from Mr Egan in Paris.

At the Dublin winter assizes to-day Owen Norman and John Kelly were put forward to receive sentence for the murderous assault on Constable Glennon at Glasnevin. Mr Justice Harrison characterised the assault as a most aggravatsd one, which had seriously endangered the life of the constable, who was still in peril. John Kelly, who struck the blow which caused such serious injuries to the officer, was sentenced to 10 years' penal servitude and the other to 7 years.

This afternoon Mr. Michael A. Whelan, cashier of the United Ireland newspaper, was arrested in the office of that journal by a police officer of the G division. He was taken in a cab to his lodgings in Dorset-street, where he procured some extra clothing, which he placed in a portmanteau. He was sent to Kilmainham Gaol in charge of two detective officers.

Baron Fitzgerald opened the winter assizes for Connaught to-day. Addressing the grand jury, he deplored the condition of their common country. There were forty cases to go before them; but this number afforded no indication whatever of the vast number of cases specially reported by the police authorities. The combination from which this class of crime resulted had lasted for four years. Since the last assizes the Legislature had admitted the grievance of the tenants, and—it was not for him to say wisely or unwisely—in a large number of cases they had suspended existing contracts in the interests of the tenants, and appointed in the administration of this new enactment not the ordinary judges of the land, but a number of men who should be free from prejudice, and what he might call the stiffness engendered by the administration of long-established law, and the most alarming feature in the condition of the country was, that in the face of the determined efforts of redress which the Legislature afforded, the class of crime to which he alluded continued, increased, and was increasing. With such a condition of a country no Government could coexist. It was not for him to devise the remedy, that might be termed the prejudice of an old man, but he should say that the system of trial by jury—the system of twelve men solemnly sworn before their God, in whom they professed to believe, was the best system that could be devised for the administration of justice tempered with mercy.

At a meeting of the Home Manufacturers' Association it was proposed that Mr. Parnell should be elected president. An amendment that Mr. Cecil Guinness should be elected, was not pressed, and Mr. Parnell was elected. It was then resolved that a protest should be entered against the proposal to request her Majesty to give her patronage to the Irish Industrial Exhibition, and the secretary and delegates were instructed to attend the next meeting of the exhibition committee, and represent that the sole patronage required was that of the Irish people.

Mr. Herbert Gladstone, M.P., after a visit of three days, left Limerick to-day by express mail train. He has travelled much through south-westCork, the county Kerry, in Berehaven, Glengariff, and Killarney, and during his brief stay in Limerick he has been taking walks into the country, and visiting farmhouses where he has been hospitably received.

The following declaration is, we are informed being widely circulated and signed throughout Ireland:—"September, 1881.—We the undersigned, declare that we will not visit the Exhibition of Irish Manufactures, which is proposed to be held in Dublin in 1882, if any member of the Royal or Viceregal family, or any agent of the Government, who may at any time have taken part in the oppression of the Irish people, be invited to open said exhibition, or allowed to have any official connection with it; and we also declare that we will not buy the goods of any manufacturer who may exhibit in said exhibition if it be held under the conditions to which we have objected.

THE CALF ROCK LIGHTHOUSE

Cork, Tuesday night.

The Calf Rock is still occupied by its six deserted occupants. At the present time there is no immediate prospect of their being rescued. The wind blows hard from the south-west, and the sea around the rock is consequently at its worst. No boat could go out to-day near the rock. It was impossible to cross from Dursey Island to the mainland a distance of about a quarter of a mile, From the keeper's letter yesterday it would appear that the men on the rock are getting disheartened and weak. It was owing to the latter circumstance that they could not draw the bedding up the rock on Monday. However the keeper writes that the bedding would be useless to them, as they had no place where they could put it. In reply to a request made for stimulants bottles of brandy were obtained, but they could not be sent to the rock to-day owing to the storm. Keeper Duggan, who was on shore when the disaster occurred, says that if they had two days of good weather the men could be rescued by the islanders.

THE TRIAL OF GUITEAU.

Philadelphia, Dec. 6.

President Arthur has declined to appear as a witness in this case, but may testify by affidavit answering written questions. Mr. Charles Farwell, a member of the Congress for Chicago, was examined as to the condition of the feeling between the rival Republican factions when General Garfield was shot, but on an objection being made the defence passed to an inquiry about his acquaintance with Guiteau. He said that Guiteau proposed to him that if he lent him $200,000 to purchase the Chicago Inter-Ocean newspaper he would make him President. Guiteau, interrupting, said:—"That is false, I never made such a proposition. I asked him to invest money in it. He said that he had already put $10,000 into the Inter-Ocean, and would not put in any more." Mr. Farwell, continuing his evidence, said that he never thought Guiteau sane. On cross-examination, he said there were grades of insanity. He did not think Guiteau so insane but that he could distinguish between right and wrong. The counsel had an argument over the admissibility of this testimony, Guiteau constantly interrupting.

Mr. George Gorham, of Washington, a Republican, was then called. He was given Guiteau's speech in the case Garfield v. Hancock to read in order that his opinion might be had. While he was reading the speech Guiteau was permitted to read aloud from his book on Truth, which much amused the spectators. Mr. Gorham then gave as his opinion of the speech that it was a tolerably fair statement of the situation and was neither remarkable nor ridiculous. Guiteau constantly interrupted him, sometimes most insolently. Mr. Scoville then read to the jury copious extracts from Guiteau's writings, afterwards putting the elder Guiteau on the stand to show the date when he first thought his brother insane. Guiteau was again set to reading his book, Truth, which he did most grandiloquently till the District Attorney protested against its continuance. The counsel then agreed that passages should be selected to be read to-morrow. The defence was then closed with the exception of one witness, and the Court adjourned. The prosecution will submit the rebutting testimony of the insanity experts.

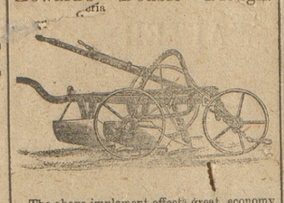
HOWARD'S CELEBRATED MACHINES

Howard's Double Plough.

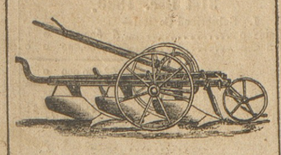


The above implement effects great economy in the time and cost of ploughing, and its success has been very marked wherever it has been introduced. The depth of work can be regulated by the lever as the plough proceeds, and at the ends, the plough is lifted by the same lever clear off the ground.

The implement is so strongly constructed that in the hands of Kaffirs it cannot readily be injured.

With steel breasts.....
With steel breasts butwithout coulters
Weight 4½ cwt.

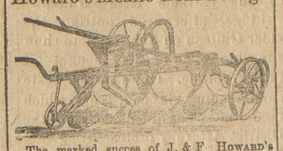
Howard's Triple Plough.



This is similar in construction to the preceding implement, but made to take three furrows. It may at once be converted into a Double Plough by the removal of the hinder body, and this is sometimes desirable on ground where the draught is heavy.

With steel breasts.....
With steel breasts but without coulters.....
Weight 5½ cwt.

Howard's Mealie Drill Plough



The marked succes of J. & F. HOWARD's Multiple Ploughs has led to a great and increasing demand for these labour-saving implements.

In addition to the economy effected by their use in time and wages, their usefulness has been materially increased by the addition of a simple drill which deposits the seed in the middle furrow, where it is immediately covered with the earth raised by the next plough share.

By this means the cost of sowing is avoided, and no seed is wasted by being exposed to birds or vermin, nor is it trodden by the draught cattle. The seed is moreover sown at a uniform width and depth, and thus a regular growth of the crop is insured.

With steel breasts.....
With steel breasts but without coulters.....
Weigth 6¾ cwt.
Maize Drill, £1 16s. extra.

The above Machines kept in Stock by the Principal Hardware Merchants.

Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne

(Ex Army Medical Staff)

IS THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE

—o—

CAUTION.—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. P. Wood stated that Dr. J Collis Browne was undoubtedly the inventor of Chlorodyne; that the story of the defendant, Freeman, being the inventor was deliberately untrue, which he regretted had been sworn to. Eminent hospital physicians of London stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne was the discoverer of Chlorodyne; that they prescribe it largely, and mean no other than Dr. Browne's.—See Times, July 12th 1864.

The Public, therefore, are cautioned against using any other than

Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne.

REMEDIAL USES AND ACTION.

This invaluable remedy produces quiet, refreshing sleep, relieves pain, calms the system, restores the deranged functions, and stimulates healthy action of the secretions of the body, without creating any of those unpleasant results attending the use of opium. Old and young may take it at all hours and times when requisite. Thousands of persons testify to its marvellous good effects and wonderful cures, while medical men extol its virtues most extensively.

CHLORODYNE is admitted by the profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered.

CHLORODYNE is the best remedy known for coughs, consumption, bronchitis, asthma.

CHLORODYNE effectually checks and arrests those too often fatal diseases—Diphtheria, Fever, Croup, Ague.

CHLORODYNE acts like a charm in Diarrhœa, and is the only specific in Cholera and Dysentery.

CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks of Epilepsy, Hysteria, Palpitation and Spasms.

CHLORODYNE is the only palliative in Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Cancer, Toothache, Meningitis, &c.

—o—

From Symes & Co., Pharmaceutical Chemists, Medical Hall, Simla, Jan. 5th 1880. To J. T. Davenport, Esq., 33, Great Russell Street, Bloomsbury, London "Dear Sir, we embrace this opportunity of congratulating you upon the wide-spread reputation this justly-esteemed medicine, Dr. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne, has earned for itself, not only in Hindostan, but all over the East. As a remedy of general utility, we much question whether a better is imported into the country, and we shall be glad to hear of its finding a place in every Anglo-Indian home. The other brands, we are happy to say, are now relegated to the native bazaars, and, judging from their sale, we fancy their sojourn there will be but evanescent. We could multiply instances ad infinitum of the extraordinary efficacy of Dr. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne in Diarrhœa and Dysentery, Spasms, Cramps, Neuralgia, the Vomiting of Pregnancy, and as a general sedative, that have occurred under our personal observation during many years. In Choleraic Diarrhœa, and even in the more terrible forms of Cholera itself, we have witnessed its surprisingly controlling power. We have never used any other form of this medicine than Collis Browne's, from a firm conviction that it is decidedly the best, and also from a sense of duty we owe to the profession and the public, as we are of opinion that the substitution of any other than Collis Browne's is a "deliberate breach of faith on the part of the chemist to prescriber and patient alike." We are, sir, faithfully yours, Symes & Co., Members of the Pharm. Society of Great Britain, His Excellency the Viceroy's Chemists."

Extract from the General Board of Health, London, as to its efficacy in Cholera.—"So strongly are we convinced of the immense value of this remedy that we cannot too forcibly urge the necessity of adopting it in all cases."

CAUTION—None genuine without the words 'Dr J Collis Browne' on the Government Stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle.
